

Keynote:

Mary Fissell

(Department of History, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, USA)

„Reading Sex: The History of a Popular Medical Manual 1684-1930“

Tereza Hendl and Bianca Jansky

(Institute of Ethics, History and Theory of Medicine, LMU Munich)

„Empowering Women through an mHealth interface? The Epistemology of Period and Fertility Tracking Apps“

Paula-Irene Villa

(Department of Sociology, LMU Munich)

„Shaping Sex: The Intersectional Biopolitics of Cosmetic Surgery“

17.01.2019 / 12-16 Uhr c.t.

Vortragsraum (EG), Institut für Ethik, Geschichte
und Theorie der Medizin, Lessingstraße 2

Keine Anmeldung erforderlich